MASJID AL MADINAH AL MUNAWARAH

His Excellency Doctor Majid al-Ghesheyan,

May Allah preserve him.

The Director of Islamic Affairs at the Embassy of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, Peace, mercy, and blessings of Allah be upon you:

I wish to express to you the highest levels of thankfulness and gratitude for the attentiveness you have devoted to this mosque and the other mosques in San Diego, in addition to the contribution of providing some symbolic gifts such as carpets, and other things to encourage the children in the Pakistani community here to memorize and recite the Noble Qur'an. I wish to mention in particular Sheikh Abdulaziz al-Saleh and Sheikh Khalid al-Sowailem. I hope that Allah Almighty will crown with success your efforts and the efforts of the brothers who work with you.

As you know, the prayer in this mosque started at the beginning of August 98, praise be to Allah. And during Ramadan 99, it was among the most active mosques (lessons in the Sobh [morning prayer], after Asr [afternoon prayer], before Ishaa [night prayer], reflections between Taraweeh prayers [Ramadan night prayers], and special lectures for women. Regarding the Qiyam program [late night prayers], it starts at one o'clock a.m. and includes Tafsir [Qur'an meanings], Hadith [Tradition of the Prophet], followed by Ramadan competitions up to the Qiyam prayer [late night prayers]). This is what our program looked like for this year.

I cannot help but express the deepest thanks to Sheikh Mutaeb al-Sudairy and Sheikh Adel al-Sadhan, who portrayed an honorable image of the Ministry of Islamic Affairs, setting an example of a Muslim Saudi propagator who excels, participates, and prepares the people to focus on worship, learning, and the rejection of disputes and division. They participated in leading the prayers, lessons, and reflections, in Masjid al-Madinah al-Munawarah, Masjid Abu Bakr, Masjid al-Ribat, and Masjid Uthman, as well as giving the khutbah [sermon] and the Eid prayer in Masjid Omar bin al-Khatab (the Somali community).

I wish to draw attention to the fact that coordination and moral support were the factors that made the greatest mark in achieving these honorable results. I surely hope that the advance coordination continues, to keep achieving good results in the future, and to work on making these occasions successful by applying the attentiveness that they deserve. May Allah preserve you and take care of you,,,,,

Faithfully
[Signed]
Omar bin Ahmed al-Bayoumi
